

Super Hero Award

Myron Daubert

Presentation Statement: For the third year in a row, the scholarship and awards committee is honoring a workforce professional through an award tailored to the conference theme. Myron is an Employment and Training Counselor in a largely rural area of western Wisconsin. Myron's collaborations with partner agencies, community based organization's and libraries has significantly increased customers' access to information and services throughout the region. Myron shares his knowledge with others by delivering train-the-trainer workshops. To date, Myron has worked with 17 libraries, trains library staff, delivers workshops, and meets directly with customers - one-on-one to address topics such as job searching, resumes, interview preparation, LinkedIn, and entrepreneurship. Myron is a true workforce super hero!
